TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

Subchapter A—Civil Air Regulations

PART 27—AIRCRAFT DISPATCHER CERTIFICATES

REVISION OF PART

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C. on the 29th day of July 1958.

Part 27, adopted December 22, 1939, effective July 15, 1940, as amended, establishes the current requirements for the issuance of aircraft dispatcher certificates. Since that time other airman parts have been revised and are now different from Part 27 in format and terminology. It is, therefore, desirable to revise Part 27 to make it conform more closely to the newer airman parts.

Two Civil Air Regulations Draft Releases were issued entitled "Proposed Revision of Part 27 of the Civil Air Regulations—Aircraft Dispatcher Certificates." The first was Draft Release 55-22, dated October 31, 1955. The second was Draft Release 57-22, dated October 2, 1957, which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 8, 1957. Both draft releases proposed changes to clarify the section pertaining to skill, to make changes in the experience requirements, and to delete the recent experience requirements.

The more significant changes are as follows:

1. Experience. The current aeronautical experience requirements preclude the possibility of a person's securing an aircraft dispatcher certificate when serving in other than scheduled air carrier or scheduled military operations. This revision broadens the base of experience which may be credited toward qualification for a certificate by recognizing the fact that some operators other than scheduled air carriers have established well-organized dispatch organizations through which they exercise dispatch control over the operation of their aircraft, even though not required to do so by the Civil Air Regulations. It is hoped that the recognition of this experience will serve to encourage the voluntary establishment of dispatch organizations in aircraft operations other than scheduled air carrier operations.

2. Knowledge. The paragraph in the present aeronautical knowledge section dealing with the characteristics of an aircraft used in air carrier operations has been moved to the section pertaining to skill. This has been done because an applicant's competence in this regard can better be determined from the practical rather than the written examination.

3. Skill. This section has been rewritten to present clearly the aircraft characteristics with respect to which the applicant will be required to take a practical examination. The specific reference to the Morse code has been deleted since an applicant in complying with the knowledge requirements would demonstrate sufficiently his familiarity with the code.

4. Recent experience requirements. Airman training and recent experience requirements applicable to aircraft dispatchers are contained in certain of the air carrier operating parts of the Civil Air Regulations. It is appropriate that these requirements should continue to be contained in the air carrier operating parts since specialized recent experience with respect to the carrier's authorized routes and the particular types of aircraft used is needed by the dispatcher so that he can perform his assigned duties in a competent manner. On the other hand, the recent experience requirements contained in present Part 27 are general in nature and may not be pertinent to the specific duties to which dispatchers are assigned. Furthermore, they are not considered necessary in view of the more specialized requirements contained in the operating parts of the Civil Air Regulations. Therefore, the current recent experience requirements are deleted from this part. This deletion will in no way affect the training program and recent experience requirements prescribed in the operating parts.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the revision of this part (22 F. R. 8006), and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby revises Part 27 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 27, as amended) as follows, effective November 1, 1958.
